PARKING
Guest are permitted to park at locations displaying University Residences “Residence Hall Permits Only” https://www.housing.purdue.edu/CampusGuests/ConferenceServices/Parking.html.

- All other parking spaces are subjective to being towed or parking citations issued.
- University Residences is not responsible for any citations, towing, or parking violations. All inquiries should be directed to the Purdue University Parking office.

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES
- All conference groups are required to pay the 7% Indiana Sales Tax and 5% Innkeepers Tax on the daily housing rate and 7% Indiana Sales Tax on all dining services. Neither Indiana Sales Tax nor Innkeepers Tax will be applied to housing costs for groups staying 30 or more nights. However, 7% Indiana Sales Tax is applicable towards dining services and will be charged accordingly.
- All rates are based on a quoted per person space, as such the occupancy cannot be more than the number of bed spaces available per room.
- All conferees and guests must be appropriately dressed when entering the dining services area. This includes wearing shirt and shoes at all times in the dining facilities. No exceptions will be made.
- No air conditioning units may be brought into any University Residences hall.
- The use of any transportation devices (motorized, electrical, standard) inside the residence hall is strictly prohibited (i.e.: Segway, Scooter, skateboard, bicycle, hover board, etc.).
- On day of determined check-out all participants must vacate and return conference key by 12:00pm, unless another arranged time is defined in the Letter of Agreement.
- A $50 fee will be assessed to the conference each time room key is lost, conference card is lost, room key is not returned at time of check-out.
- Your organization assumes final responsibility for the collection and/or payment of all damages and/or losses resulting from any incident (including, but not limited to theft) from the rooms and public areas for which your organization has arranged. Opportunity to verify the extent of damages will be provided. An attempt will be made to determine the date and time damages occur.
- University Residences is bound by the Federal Copyright Act (Title 17, United States Code, Public Law 94-553, 90 Stat. 2541) which governs how copyrighted materials, such as movies, may be utilized publicly. Conferences showing any movie within University Residence must obtain written authorization and approval from UR Conferences Services. Failure to obtain authorization and approval may result in assessed fines.
- Visit the below link to ensure your program is meeting University guidelines and youth safety regulations. https://www.purdue.edu/ethics/resources/programs-involving-minors.html
- All participants and staff must follow all Protect Purdue Health and CDC (Center for Disease and Control) guidelines while on campus. Updates of current protocols can be found: https://protect.purdue.edu/
- A background check must occur for all adults via the National Sex Offenders Database. It is the hosting groups’ responsibility to complete this background check on all adults who plan to participate in the conference at University Residences. The National Sex Offender Registry website below is available for you to complete this process. The link for the Indiana Sex Offender Registry is also included and should be used. University Residences has taken the appropriate measures to ensure all conference staff working for and residing in residence halls have completed the process.

LAST REVISED 3.1.2021
RESERVATION GUARANTEES FOR HOUSING, DINING, AND MEETING SPACE

Estimated Numbers: The estimated number of attendees for housing and dining service is specified at the time a calendar form is submitted and/or planning meeting has been scheduled.

Final Guaranty Numbers: A final guarantee must be given no less than 10 business days before the conference check-in date. Conferences exceeding 2000+ attendees are required to submit final guarantees and housing rosters no less than 30 days prior to arrival. This guarantee shall include the total number of people requiring housing during the conference as well as the number of commuters requiring dining service.

No-Shows: Billed to the conference for one night’s room and tax, including all dining meals associated with the guaranty number.

Changes: Any changes, substitutions, edits, etc. to the housing roster after the guarantee date will incur a $10 per change fee.

Billing: If no guarantee number is provided 10 business days prior to check-in, then the conference is responsible for payment of the estimated number provided on the original calendar form or the Letter of Agreement, whichever document is more current. The final guarantee number for dining service must equal the final housing guarantee number (except when dining service for commuters is added to the guarantee number).

Billing for dining services is based on the greater of the number served, the final guarantee, or the number of participants on the housing roster. If a food order is canceled after the final guarantee, but more than 24 hours prior to the event, a charge of 50% of the total quoted event price will be made to the conference program. If a food order is canceled 24 hours or less prior to the event, a charge for 100% of the total quoted event price and labor will be charged to the conference.

The University Residences Conference Services Office retains the option to re-assign housing and dining service to an alternate location if deemed necessary in the sole discretion of the University. University Residences Conference Services personnel will notify the Conference Chairperson of any changes at least 10 business days prior to the start of the conference, whenever possible.

DEPOSIT AND CANCELLATION/FEES POLICY

For non-University customers, a deposit in the amount of 50% of the estimated bill must be paid by check no later than 60 days prior to the conference check-in date.

University Departments must provide a valid account number at the time of the planning meeting, which will serve as a deposit commitment and will be bound by University policy to the same commitments as non-University customers. The following schedule provides the financial assessment if applicable for meeting space, housing, and meals if a conference cancels:

REFUNDS

No refunds will be made to the conference if individual participant cancellations occur within 10 business days prior to check-in day. Individual participant refunds will only be made for emergency and/or health reasons, when approved by the Conference Chairperson and the Associate Director of Conferences.
TERMS AND CONDITIONS

I. PAYMENT: The payment for the total cost of services provided under this agreement in addition to any damages or lost key replacement charges is due within 5 days of receipt of final bill. Clients will have 5 business days after receiving the final bill to confirm payment.

II. DEFINITION OF ROLES:
   A. Conference Chairperson
      1. Responsible party who is sponsoring a conference with Purdue University and/or University Residences. Responsible for providing an afterhours contact phone number for emergencies.
   B. Conference Coordinator/Senior Event Planner
      1. Coordinates with University Residences and provides support to the Conference Chairperson.
   C. Purdue Dining and Culinary
      1. Provides dining options for conference guests.
   D. University Residences Conference Services
      1. Plans and provides accommodations for conference guests.

III. REGULATIONS (APPLICABLE TO ALL GROUPS):
   A. The Conference Chairperson is responsible for all damages caused by its attendees, this includes any alteration to fixtures. Should damages occur University Residences will provide information concerning the location of damages and the date/time of occurrence, whenever possible.
   B. Indiana law and University policy require that all adults must report any known or suspected child abuse or neglect to local law enforcement or Child Protective Services. As a condition of this contract, adult advisors and chaperones must report any known or suspected child abuse or neglect during the conference to the Purdue University Police Department.
   C. All emergency medical procedures must be clearly defined for attendees prior to check-in of the conference. A copy of these arrangements needs to be provided to University Residences including name and contact information for medical staff, such as athletic trainers, nurses, etc.
   D. The following are prohibited in/on University Residences premises: smoking (this includes the use of e-cigarettes or personal vaporizing instruments, except for designated areas), gambling, alcohol, drugs, firearms, and weapons. University Residences policy towards the listed items is zero tolerance. Further information is available online at www.housing.purdue.edu.
   E. Violation of zero tolerance policies will result in immediate removal from University Residences.
      1. A University Residences staff member will contact chairperson/emergency contact and inform them of the removal process.
   F. No pets allowed unless they are documented service animals.

IV. REGULATIONS (Adult – Over 18 years of age)
   A. All adult attendees must comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws and all University regulations while on our campus. The consumption and/or possession of alcoholic beverages in Purdue University Residences is prohibited.
   B. Adult advisors must pass the registry check conducted by the Chairperson or Conference Coordinator.
   C. Adult advisors must complete youth safety training and have a certificate of completion on file with the Conference Chairperson as outlined in the operating procedures for programs involving minors.

V. REGULATIONS (Youth – Under 18 years of age)
   A. All youth attendees must comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, in addition to all University regulations while on campus. Further information is available online at www.housing.purdue.edu. Youth are not permitted to share sleeping rooms or restrooms with adults.
   B. Every youth attendee unaccompanied by a parent, must have in possession prior to check-in, a medical release for hospital treatment and/or treatment by a physician signed by one of the attendee’s parents or legal guardian that complies with Indiana statutes. Medical documentation stays on file with the Conference Chairperson and/or Conference Coordinator.
      1. The Conference Chairperson is responsible for maintaining the medical release forms. The Conference Chairperson, at check-in, will provide University Residences Staff the name of the person holding the medical release forms. https://www.purdue.edu/business/risk_mgmt/pdf/rm28.pdf

C. It is essential to define and enforce a set of behavior standards for youth attendees that are clear and explicit. It is the responsibility of the Conference Chairperson to clearly articulate and outline these expectations to the youth attendees prior to conference check-in.

A copy of these standards must be submitted to University Residences staff at least ten business days prior to the group’s arrival on the campus.

The Standard Behavior Document must include at a minimum the below information:

1. Restrictive Hours
   - All youth attendees must be in their assigned University Residence no later than 11:00 pm and in their assigned room no later than 12:00 midnight. Exceptions to the above timeline must be arranged with University Residences prior to arrival. Individual groups can be more restrictive in setting hours. The enforcement of these hours is the responsibility of the sponsored organization.
   - Quiet hours, which may be established by the Chairperson, must begin no earlier than 7:00pm and end no earlier than 7:00am. There are always 24-hour courtesy hours in effect.

2. Visitation Standards
   - University Residences does not tolerate mixed gender visitation in youth attendees’ rooms.

3. Behavioral Expectations
   - Behaviors that would result in immediate dismissal from University Residences housing.
   - Instructions for conference youth and staff to cooperate with requests from University Residences Staff in the performance of their responsibilities and duties.

4. Dining
   - Proper behavior at mealtimes in our dining rooms and always when in conference facilities.

5. Staff / Participant Ratio
   - 1 staff member (over 18 years of age) for every 10 youth of each gender to supervise behavior when in conference facilities.

D. A mechanism, by which each youth attendee can be immediately identified as an attendee of the conference, must be provided (for example: A T-shirt or nametag). It is required that all youth attendees always wear or carry the identification while in University Residences and while on campus.

E. Live-in staff must be provided at a ratio of at least 1 live-in staff for every 10 youth of each gender. Adequate training and orientation for staff must be provided. A meeting with the Chairperson, staff, and a housing representative is required upon arrival and prior to checking in to University Residences. The duties of staff shall be clearly and explicitly defined. Minimum duties must include:
   1. Knowing youth to the extent they can be identified and called by name, assisting them with problem solving, and accounting for their presence, health, and safety at various intervals during the day.
   2. Enforcing your conference rules and terms stated in this agreement.

VI. UNIVERSITY LIABILITY: Purdue University assumes no responsibility for any property of the conference or any of its attendees, which is lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed in University Residences at any time including, but not limited to, periods when the attendees are not in the building.

VII. INDEMNIFICATION: Sponsored group agrees to indemnify Purdue and hold it harmless from and against all liability, losses, damages, claims, liens, and expense (including reasonable legal fees) arising out of or connected with the conference, excepting only such liability as may result solely from the acts of negligence of Purdue or its employees. Sponsored group shall at the request of Purdue undertake to defend all suits and to investigate and to defend all claims whether justified or not, if such claim or suit be against Purdue, the Trustees of Purdue, or their respective officers, agents, servants, and employees.

VIII. INSURANCE: Externally sponsored groups shall maintain in force during the conference commercial general liability for bodily injury and/or property damage in an amount of not less than $1,000,000 single limit, per occurrence. If conference involves minor participants, a required child abuse and sexual molestation liability coverage of at least $1,000,000 single limit, per occurrence must be provided. Chairperson shall provide Purdue University with a certificate of insurance prior to the conference.

IX. GOVERNING LAW; EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION; EXCLUSIVE VENUE: This Agreement is entered into in Indiana and shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the substantive law (and not the law of conflicts) of the State of Indiana. Courts of competent jurisdiction located in Tippecanoe County, Indiana shall have sole and exclusive jurisdiction of any action arising out of or in connection with the Agreement, and such courts shall be the sole and exclusive venue for any such action.
X. GENERAL: In the event any party hereto pursues litigation to enforce this Agreement then, the prevailing party is entitled to recover reasonable attorneys’ fees and court costs. If any provision of this Agreement is declared to be invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be severed from this Agreement and the other provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect. This Agreement contains the entire understanding of the parties with respect to the matter contained herein. There are no promises, covenants, or undertakings other than those expressly set forth herein. Amendments, modifications, or changes of or to this Agreement must be made in writing and signed by a duly authorized representative of both parties. Chairperson may not assign any rights under this Agreement. Subject to the foregoing sentence, this Agreement shall be binding upon Purdue and Chairperson, their successors, and assigns.

XI. FORCE MAJEURE: Failure to perform an obligation in this Agreement (other than an obligation to pay money) is not a breach or default to the extent that the failure is due to a cause beyond the reasonable control of the affected party, including without limitation acts of God, acts of the public enemy, acts of war or terrorism, acts of the government, fires, floods, epidemics, flu pandemic, quarantine restrictions, strikes, freight embargoes, severe or inclement weather beyond that usually encountered in the county in which the Facility is located, interruption or delay of transportation service, or shortages in labor or materials. If the event is prevented for any of the foregoing causes, neither the University nor the Chairperson will be under any obligation to reschedule the program at a different time. Without limiting the foregoing, Purdue as an instrumentality of the State of Indiana to which the legal and law-enforcement jurisdiction, emergency management, and life/health safety responsibilities have been delegated, shall have the sole right to determine whether or not there exists an epidemic/pandemic situation that should either limit public access to Purdue or the travel of individuals to or from Purdue, and may suspend performance under this Agreement temporarily, or terminate this Agreement with no financial liability in part or in its entirety.
